Boy (6-8) my pet monkey

When I grow up, I don't want a dog or a cat. All I want is a monkey. My own monkey, and we'll be best friends for sure. I think I'll call him Marvin, because Marvin the monkey is a great name! I'm not gonna keep him in a cage either. Marvin can run all over the house, whatever he wants! I'll always give him as many bananas as he can eat.

Then when Marvin gets lonely, I'll get a little dog. That way, when I take Marvin for walks, I can put the dog on a leash and let Marvin walk him. Yep, me walking Marvin and Marvin walking the dog. Then I could get the dog to walk the cat. And what if my cat walked the bird. No. I don't think that will work. Anyway, what if I could train all the animals to do my chores? Then I'd never have to clean my room, or wash the dishes, and definitely not mow the lawn. Now that's the life!
