Girl (13-15) Gourmet Chef

I can cook anything. You name it and I can cook it. With the exception of sushi, but you really don't cook sushi. I'm gonna take a class to learn how to roll it though. One day I'll open a restaurant. Really fancy, totally five star all the way.

I've got some of my own specialty dishes that no one else makes. I started cooking when I was just a little girl with my Mom. She's a great cook, and I learned so much from her. The only difference between the way we cook is in the presentation. I'm totally about texture and colors. I think food should excite all your senses, ya know?

Some of my favorites to cook are Shrimp ala (your name) it's a Caribbean style dish with just a hint of chili peppers in the sauce. Raspberry steak is another I know it sounds weird, but the raspberry sauce and filet mignon do a flavor dance in your mouth! Or maybe I could have a cooking show yeah that could also make me famous. A famous gourmet chef I like it!
