Girl (16-18) College Entrance Worries

What am I going to do? I have no clue why they make us take these stupid entrance exams. It's not like one test can really tell how smart somebody is! And all the paperwork. Ughh!

Every school I apply to has at least one essay requirement. I haven't started on any of them yet, and they are due in three weeks! I'm lost when it comes to Financial Aid, too. What is a F.A.F.S.A., anyhow? And how am I supposed to know secret school codes? You'd think for college stuff, they'd be a little smarter. Wouldn't ya?

I'm applying to four schools. I think I stand a decent chance at two of 'em, but I don't really know how well I did on my A C T's. It all depends, and everything is so complicated! Why can't somebody simplify all this crap? Maybe they should have to go back to school to learn how to make things easier for students! Or maybe I should just go to beauty school. Hey that's an idea. Maybe I can teach them a thing or two.
