Girl (16-18) Friday is Payday

Friday is finally here! Pay day! My first real paycheck ever! Oh, I'm going to have so much fun spending it. I wonder how much it'll be. HmmmÖtwo weeks, fifteen hours per week. Not to mention taxes. Okay, 30 times seven fifty. Seven times threeÖcarry the twoÖ

Aw, what ever it is, it won't last long! Right after work, I'm going to the bank and cashing it. Then I'm picking up Brenda, and we're going on a mall shopping spree! I think I'll hit up the shoes first, then look at a new purse. I definitely need some lipstick too. Ohhh, and I want to see if I can find a sweater I saw a girl wearing yesterday. It would look so much better on me!

I could totally drop out of school and work all the time, then I could go and spend my paychecks at the mall every weekend! Naw, I'd rather not mix business with pleasure like that. I am going to spoil myself rotten today!

Thank you (she opens the envelope). What? That's it? Fed, Fica, Social SecurityÖ I need some security right now this is just enough for maybe one pair of shoes.
