Girl (6-8) Sales Pitch

I'm trying to win a big prize this year. All I've got to do is sell three hundred boxes of cookies in a month. It will be easy, because my cookies are yummy. I got choco chip cookies, mint ones, and cookoo-nut cookies.

If I sell the most of all the girls, I get to go see Mickey at Disneyland and a new bike. If I don't sell all the cookies, then all I get is a new badge to sew on. I've already got lotsa badges, so I'm not going to lose. How many boxes of cookies will you buy?

And for your brother? Your sister? I'm sure you want to order a box for your next door neighbor. Okay, that's eighty-three dollars and thirty-five cents. Check or credit card? Cash will be fine. Thank you.
