Girl (6-8) Zoo Trip

Oh my gosh! All the animals were so cool. We got to go to the zoo on a field trip today. I sat on the bus, the whole way next to Amy and we played cats cradle. Brad was throwing paper airplanes at us, and Mrs. McNeil made him sit up front with her. Then he was pulling my hair by the hippos, and Mrs. McNeil made him hold her hand.

We saw zebras, and elephants, a sleeping panda, and sea lions. Amy got to go up on stage at the sea lion show. It gave her a big slimy kiss. Ewww! It was really icky. She said it was stinky like fish. Then she got a T-shirt. I bought a whistle and I tooted it at the monkeys. They were swinging around so much. I think they liked my song.

My favorites were the giraffes. They're so big. I wish I could ride one. One of 'em walked up and looked right at me. I think he was smiling. I named him Georgey. Mrs. McNeil said they only eat trees. And their legs bend the wrong way, like they're walking backwards. They're kind of funny. I think I'll be a Zooologist or whatever they call it.
