G2 - GUITAR CENTER

I was never much good at music. But then my friend John took me to Guitar Center.

Wow! They have everything---wood guitars, electric guitars, and basses. They've even got a recording studio right in the store. I couldn't resist picking up a bass guitar, cranking it up, and playing like the best of them. Well, John was pretty embarrassed. And I have to admit I wasn't that good. But I'm getting better, because Guitar Center even offers private lessons. I've got one tonight with Spike. Yeah, pretty soon I'll have my own band.

Move over, Jimi Hendrix!
