Q1 - Quick-Up Buster

If there is one thing I'm fussy about, it's the bathroom. It's got to be clean and smell fresh. My sister always makes a mess in there with all her make up and stuff...I've never seen so many bottles of this and that, lip sticks, hair stuff and pictures of all her many boyfriends.

When she doesn't clean up...that's when I bring out the Quick-up buster...it sucks up all her stuff and leaves the bathroom spotless, quick.

Boy does she get mad. I've told her over and over to pick up but does she listen?...no...I told her cleaning up can be quick as 1,2,3.

Too bad little sister.
